Customer Reviews

I gave copies of the God Calling daily reading for my three adult daughters. I myself have been reading God Calling and God at Eventide for over 30 years. I read it daily. The books written many years ago are inspirations that God gave two women who lived together and were having many hardships. The books have been edited by A.J. Russell with an introduction that explains the God given words which changed and challenged their lives and gave them a better understanding of the gifts of faith, hope, peace, joy and love.

This is NOT the original God Calling book. It is only selected quotes from the original text and should be advertised as such. Although it says expanded edition, it is actually far less, rather than more, of what I expected. For this book to be advertised as "God Calling" is fraudulent. This may be legal because of copyright laws, but it is intentionally deceptive and a hoax upon the consumer. Words to live by, keeps you grounded and prepares you to weather daily storms, so one can remain victorious in daily living.

This little book is packed with inspiration. I keep it with my Bible, and enjoy reading it every morning. That way I start each day with thoughts of how God wants me to live through Him.
