Customer Reviews

I was pretty disappointed with this book. When I bought it it said it was in good condition, but when we received it it had a whole page that had been ripped into pieces and taped back into the book. Aside from the condition of the book, I was also slightly disappointed with the content. I ordered it for my 6 year old, who is very into super heros. But the pictures are so big and obvious it did not take him very much time to find any of the items. I would not recommend this book.

Looks brand new!!!! My son is a batman fanatic and I couldn't find this anywhere for under $30. It must be out of circulation. Ordered this "used" not knowing what to expect. So glad I did!!!!

My four year old loves it! He is crazy about anything Batman though. I was a little disappointed that there wasn't more of a challenge to find the objects on each page. That would be the only thing I would change.

My nephew is 5 and I bought him this book for Christmas. He was very excited when he opened it and has enjoyed browsing the book frequently ever since.

My sons, ages 6 and 4, are die-hard Batman fans and love all things superhero related. I was looking for a change of pace in our nightly bedtime story collection and picked this up. The look and find books are good on two levels: first, you have fun searching the pages for Batman and villains; second, you expand vocabulary with a second and third review of the book. The illustrations are dense and there's so much activity your little Batman fan won't see it all in one sitting. However, kids memorize the book in no time, so you can't play look and find more than 1-2 times. I'd recommend this higher if the book was interactive, allowing us to move Batman around so each time is different. As it stands, the book is great for a weekend's entertainment. Enjoy it and pass it along to another young superhero.

My children spend hours searching the illustrations to find the items. It's a fun way to share a book!

This is a sort of "Where's Waldo" book for kids that like Batman. The pages are colorful with a lot going on in each one. The pages have illustrations of a group of things that you can try to find on that page. Very fun!
