Customer Reviews

Paddy lives in the enchanted forest of Misty Wood. His job is to help spread the pollen so the flowers will grow. Paddy is having a birthday and he invites all of his friends to come to the party. As he goes through the forest, he makes new friends to invite to the party. My daughter enjoyed this book. The book's cover was the first thing that attracted her, but she also loved the illustrations inside. The book begins with a drawing of Misty Wood so the reader can visualize as they read. The font is large and the vocabulary fits with the intended age group. Illustrations throughout the book keep the young reader entertained. Short chapters and a smaller sized book make this perfect for short attention spans and small hands. Parents and teachers will appreciate the age appropriate vocabulary and the enticement to reluctant readers. The reader will love the extra activities at the back of the book that correspond with the story. I received this book free of charge from Children's Lit in exchange for my honest review.

It's Paddy the Puppy's birthday, and he's so excited he's having trouble performing his everyday fairy puppy task of spreading pollen from flower to flower. In order to burn off a little energy while still being productive, he travels to another field to work, but his mischievousness gets him in trouble a few times along the way. Good thing Paddy is as good at making friends as he is at causing problems. This is a very sweet, innocent chapter book filled with fairy animals, happy resolutions, and friendship. The chapters are a tad long for the age level, and the illustrations are less frequent than some children may prefer, but the larger font, entertaining topic, and G rating work well for young readers.

My daughter is in LOVE with these books! She is 7 and absolutely loves animals. She got one for easter and read it right away so I decided to get the rest of them. She is almost done with all of them! I highly recommend these books!

My eight year old daughter absolutely loves this book series, she blew off our movie night to go read this. As sad as I was, I am happy she enjoys it.

My daughter (7) used these as her first chapter books. They are short and easy. She loved them.
