This is such a cute book! I bought this for my two year old daughter. I knew she would love it as she loves the Bubble Guppies, and she also loves to look at books. I like that it is a smaller book as it is the perfect size for her to hold comfortably in her hands while looking at it. I also appreciate the fact that it is a board book which is what I was looking for. She doesn't quite understand yet the importance of being careful with paper pages, and has gotten too excited when looking at a book tearing the pages when turning them. The pages are made out of a heavier cardboard so there is no worry of that happening with them. I love how bright and colorful the pages are. On each page set one of the characters is looking for something of a certain color, and there is at least one or two things on the two pages that are that color. It is a simple yet fun book. There aren't too many words per page, which is nice for her age as she isn't as much into listening to the story, but more talking about what is on the pages. She loves pointing out the different characters as she knows all their names, and we talk about the different colors which she knows as well. It is just a cute, fun book, and she brings it to us at least once a day to read it to her. I would definitely recommend it to anyone who has a younger child that loves the Bubble Guppies. This was a personal purchase bought at the full retail price. I am reviewing it solely to share my experience with other potential buyers.

Very cute book! It's definitely smaller than I expected (shame on me for not reading the description). I was also expecting it to relate to the episode "The Crayon Prix" so that was a tad disappointing. The pages aren't focused on only one color; it's more of a "point out this color" kind of thing.

This was a gift for my two-year-old niece, who loves Bubbly Guppies. It's a pretty basic board book, and is a small size which is great for little hands. She loves looking at the pictures and, when she will actually sit still, has enjoyed having it read to her. If you have a Bubble Guppies fan in your life, he or she will enjoy this book.

This is a great book to keep on hand for your little bubble guppy. Its small enough that it can be stuffed in your purse on your way out the door or it can live in the car, like ours does. If your child likes the bubble guppies, he/she will love it!

My grandson loves this book. The colors are bright. The construction is well done. It seems to be holding up nicely to an 18 month olds abuse and use. He sits and looks at it for 10 to 15 minutes at a time several times a day which is good for this very active fellow. When he can sit still longer for us to read it to him all the way through it will be a great tool to teach him his colors.

This is a nice little board book for toddlers that like the Bubble Guppies. The illustrations are really good, but some of the color examples could have been better. For example, the color green is found as a book on a bookshelf and as kelp in a fishbowl. Those examples aren't very big, and they could have pointed out easier "greens", like Gil's tail. Overall, a cute little book that my daughter loves.

My daughter and son LOVE bubble guppies! This book is well made and cute but its a very small. I didn't realize when we ordered it how small it would be. Shipped fast so that was a bonus.

Cute little board book but emphasis is on little. I was surprised by dimensions and how small it was, but that is my fault for not really looking at that before buying. With that said, this will end being a great book for my nephew to look at in the car or easily tuck in his diaper bag for on the go. Great colors and quality!
