Customer Reviews

I have bought this calendar for 3 or 4 years now. I would be devastated if they ever stopped making it. I love that it has 6 spaces - one for each member of my family. As well as a bigger 7th space to write family events. Perfection! I also love the color palette. Each year is a little different but they are always great colors that blend with most any decor. Most "family/mom" calendars are too "kid" looking and bright primary colors. This series always has sophisticated colors. My only wish would be to add a "sneak peak" to last month and next month. This is a BIG calendar the listed dimensions are misleading. That is the closed dimensions. When hanging it is ~22" long. Past versions of the calendar you had to re-write family names each month. I think it was last year it is formatted such that you only have to write them once. I like that! I will buy this calendar for as long as they produce it!

Love, love, love this calendar! I have a family of 6, so most of these types of calendars don't work for us, because they only have room for 5 family members. This one can actually fit 7 names, awesome! It's so much easier to keep everyone's separate schedules organized with this layout. It does come with a handful of stickers, but there isn't even close to enough to be able to use them for the whole year. If you have a big family, you can get maybe 2 or 3 months use of the stickers, but I personally don't use stickers on my calendars anyway, so that's no biggie for me. I highly recommend this calendar for large, busy families. 5 stars!

I love to have a calendar on the wall. Especially one that has a space for everyone in the family, this one has space for 7. I really like that I don't need to write the names of everyone on every month. It's a nice, simple calendar. Not flashy. I've used others that had a space in the back for important names, numbers and emergency information. This came with some stickers, the picture made it appear like it was a lot, but it's not. So I went out to get more. I also don't care that with is 18 months. No calendar ends in July. They always end in December so it seems pointless to me, I wish it was just 12 months. However, I do like the it. It hangs nicely on my fridge.

I've had Sandra Boynton's Mom Calendar before but I didn't like the cartoon-y look of it, so this one is more my style. The format it has is superior to that of SB's and I really like the fact that I don't have to write everyone's name more than 5 times (the name part is on the far left and it's cutout to apply to all months as they get flipped). Ingenius idea at a killer price. This has saved me many missed appointments in the past. :]

This is my 3rd year buying this calendar. I really love it and it has been a major help. Between my family, college, work, and appointments, it can get a little crazy keeping track of everyone and where they need to go. I like this calendar because I can break it down by person. I also have big handwriting and I don't feel cramped when I fill it in. As long as this calendar is available, I'll buy it every year. I definitely recommend it!

I've bought this calendar for three years in a row for our family of five and we love it. I keep it in the kitchen where we can all access it, and even though I also use my iPhone calendar, this is the best way for our family to keep track of each other!

This is a great calendar that works well for my family of six. We have a very busy schedule with everyone, and this helps keep us on track. I magnet it right on my fridge and is very convenient for everyone to use.

These are best calendars! I have been ordering two every year for the last 5 years (so I can see two months at a time). I love that I only have to write names on the side column one time instead of every month. Plenty of room to write and I love the stickers that come with it.
