I got this for my younger on who is not only in love with Diary of a Wimpy Kid Series, but everything Minecraft. So of Course I was the coolest mom in the world for finding these. He rolled through these so fast that he was able to lend them out to his friends after 2 days. He actually put the video games away to finish reading.. SCOREI can't wait for the next editions- these books are every moms dream come true!!

Zombies, Minecraft, what more could a kid ask for? I'm a mom, not a kid, and I am not into zombies or Minecraft. But my kids, especially my 7 year old, enjoyed this free Kindle book. The story is written in a fun and interesting way and offers some insight into the world of Minecraft. My 4 year old, who can't read yet, enjoyed the story and the pictures. Win-win.

I bought this book for my seven year old. I thought it would be something that he would enjoy reading since it combines two of his favorite things---Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Minecraft. Sure enough, as soon as I showed it to him, he was so excited. He has been reading it since and says it's a funny book. I'm so happy he loves it. He wants more of these books so I plan on ordering more soon.He is practically finished with this one.

This book is terrible in every sense. My child loves to read and loves Minecraft, but this did not hold his attention. The pictures are blurry, dark, and look photocopied. The formatting of the text is poor - words are so close to the right margin that you have to bend the spine to read them. All of this could be forgiven if the book was actually entertaining; sadly it isn't. This was a waste of money.

My 8 year old loves Minecraft and Diary of a Wimpy Kid books. Thought he would like this. At first he was disappointed it wasn't actually a Diary of a Wimpy kid book, but after he read this he said it was pretty good and would read more.

My son loves these books! He is in 3rd grade and has to read out loud at least 15 minutes a night. He hates reading. He is a Minecraft player - although he used to play Minecraft a lot more often than he does now - he still loves the books. I even find them funny (and have learned a lot more about Minecraft in a non-game environment because my son has to explain things to me).We have read through Book 3 and I have to admit, I don't find myself cringing too often at bad grammar - THANK YOU. I just purchased through book 5.

It's really short and there's only about one paragraph on each page, if I were younger or struggled with reading I might be more into it. It's very adventurous though! They really tried to show how a zombie would feel and show they're not just dumb mobs attracted to flesh. So it's cool.

Many people know about Minecraft and one I read this book I realized that not only do we kill mobs for our safety. We kill them and they were like yes but now old and no more skin. This was an awesome story about a zombie and his life
