It's basically a bunch of individual (1 page max) strips about minions in slapstick situations. If you like Minions and short slapstick comics, you'll love the book. The creators of Minions were involved in the process so it definitely has the feel of the Minions. Really enjoyed this!

BANANA! This is cute, if you are a minion fan.. It is a little bit different because there is not much writing , it is all pictures and some are hard to understand. However, if you love the minions you will like looking at this.

My daughter (5 years old) loves Minions. I purchased this mainly for her to enjoy looking at pictures and to learn about how one reads comic strips. She has been enjoying it quite a bit as we read this together. The overall book is of a high quality. The illustrations are top notch and the stories are cute. I was really impressed with how well the illustrators did in terms of telling the story. There si not much dialogue (of course, they're minions!) beyond a few sounds which the minions make to convey an emotion. I know that as a kid, I would have loved to have had this book. There are so many small details in the drawings which I always enjoyed exploring.

Mostly comic "concepts" vs. many words. Perfect for my 6 year old son who is at a learning stage where "concepts" are growing in him. Also gives him a refresher from all his actual "reading".

Cute book but I was expecting more of a story than just pictures.

Lots of graphic so it is fun but not much writing

I know 2 little boys who are happy to have these

Everything I expected from a minions comic book.
