Customer Reviews

This book has all the things that early readers need and like: humor, pictures that tell part of the story, just a few words on a page, an easily read font and rhyming. I have kid tested it with several struggling readers, they all loved it.

This is a cute book for a beginner reader. My 5 year old really enjoys the rhythm of the book and the characters are very cute! The play on words that rhyme seem to make it easier for little ones to learn to read. Highly recommend!

This book is hilarious! Fox is mischievous, and pig is gullible. This is pretty much a lesson like the one from "The Boy Who Cried Wolf". Fox keeps tricking pig into thinking Fox needs help, and when Fox finally does need help Pig doesn't believe him. The story is hilarious and involves pranks, getting squished under things, and even using wigs as props. It is a cute book and an easy read for beginner readers. My 6 year old made it through the entire book with only needing help on 1-2 words. A great book overall.

My son is 6 and learning to read. He thought that the story was funny. Enough repetitive words to build his confidence.

The fox can still be a sly character but the pig is innocently funny. I love reading it (I am adult- I purchased it for my 8 year old daughter).

Kids (6 yr, and 9 yr) really liked the book. Highly recommended.

Great fun can't wait to read it to my grandchild
