Customer Reviews

This is what I buy every year for years. The couple of times I tried others I am always disappointed due to being too small or poor quality pictures. I love extreme weather and info in the day blocks are always interesting. The pictures in this calendar makes me want to go outside in a thunderstorm and take my own pictures (which I do anyway)

I fancy myself a weather geek, only 7 apps on my phone, but this seems to be a way for storm-chasers to make more royalties from their photos, too many of which are tornados. The Fact for the Day would be more interesting if it was big enough to read, but it already leaves inadequate room to scribble in! I tried to give this away to my son at Christmas, as a reminder of what he will NOT miss from the Midwest, but he left it behind when he went back to California.

I get these calendars every year for my son. The images are just beautiful, and the facts and information are great to read. If you are into weather, this is, obviously, a great choice to see the millions of gorgeous patterns and shapes storms/weather create.

I have purchased the weather guide calendar every year for over 20 years and enjoy the photos AND the wonderful scientific information added.

I get this calendar every year as a stocking stuffer for my husband. He loves the pictures , every year they have some pretty awesome weather pictures. He never wants a different calendar.

Never fails to delight with a plethora of great photos and lots of information/statistics! Keep up the awesome calendars!

So much fun daily info and monthly stats, along with history, storms and more!Something to read everyday, great for telling my coworkers all the fun facts I learned.

The 2016 Weather Guide Calendar is awesome! It was loaded with interesting weather facts and, the main reason for me getting the calendar - the pictures, were amazing.
