Customer Reviews

I checked this book out at our public library without looking at it for my 6 years old child. There are some magic tricks for your child to learn, but there is also a history on Magic, which has sections including witchcraft and the occult, sorcery, conjuring, and wizards. If you are just looking for a book that teaches your child only tricks and not history, then this is not the book for you. The positive thing about the book are the tricks in the book are pretty neat for any kid to learn. Some of the tricks are the tightrope ball, impossible predictions, the magic string, and cups and balls to name a few. The instructions for each trick seem easy to follow.

Horrible book for young kids because it's not just magic tricks. It includes sections on sorcery, witchcraft, the occult, Wicca, etc. Save your money and buy a magic trick book if that's what your kid wants, not a history of magic book.

Excellent book for young children who are interested in magic
