DK Readers L1: Homes Around The World

Synopsis

Combining photographs, lively illustrations, and engaging, age-appropriate stories, DK Readers capture children's interest while developing their reading skills and general knowledge. Homes around the World looks at some of the world's most unusual human residences, including pueblos, floating homes, tree houses, portable yurts, and eco-friendly houses.

Customer Reviews

Very age-appropriate for new readers! It provided many interesting facts and photos that intrigued my 6 year old curious grandson! Perfect for our Biomimicry camp!

My Montessori classroom has this book as part of our library. Great pictures and info for young readers and non readers.

this is a great picture book for ages 3-11. the photos demonstrate diversity in life style and the means of living

This book will be a good addition to my school library for homes around the world which is required in TX.

my lil ones loved the books

Ok - a bit boring and doesn't explain different types of homes in US, and some remote homes is not relatable for an early reader.

I like the idea behind this book and the pictures are great. The problem I have is that the homes are not labeled. We want to know WHERE these homes are! It seems like it would have been so simple to add the location of each photo.

We love dk readers, my granddaughter loves to read these and learn. Great way to start critical thinking
